

Minimalism and Other Late 1950s-Early '60s Art

Minimalist Sculptors

Big shapes, simple silhouettes, little to no color or bright simple color, geometric shapes often

Donald Judd

Sol Lewitt

Walter De Maria

Robert Morris

Carl Andre

Richard Serra

New Materials

Light, found objects, assemblages, papers/fabrics, car parts, etc.

Robert Irwin (light)

Dan Flavin (light, minimalism)

Robert Rauschenberg

John Chamberlain (car parts)

Later on: James Turrell (light)

New Ideas in Painting

Agnes Martin

Cy Twombly

Frank Stella (minimalism)

Jasper Johns (partner of Rauschenberg)

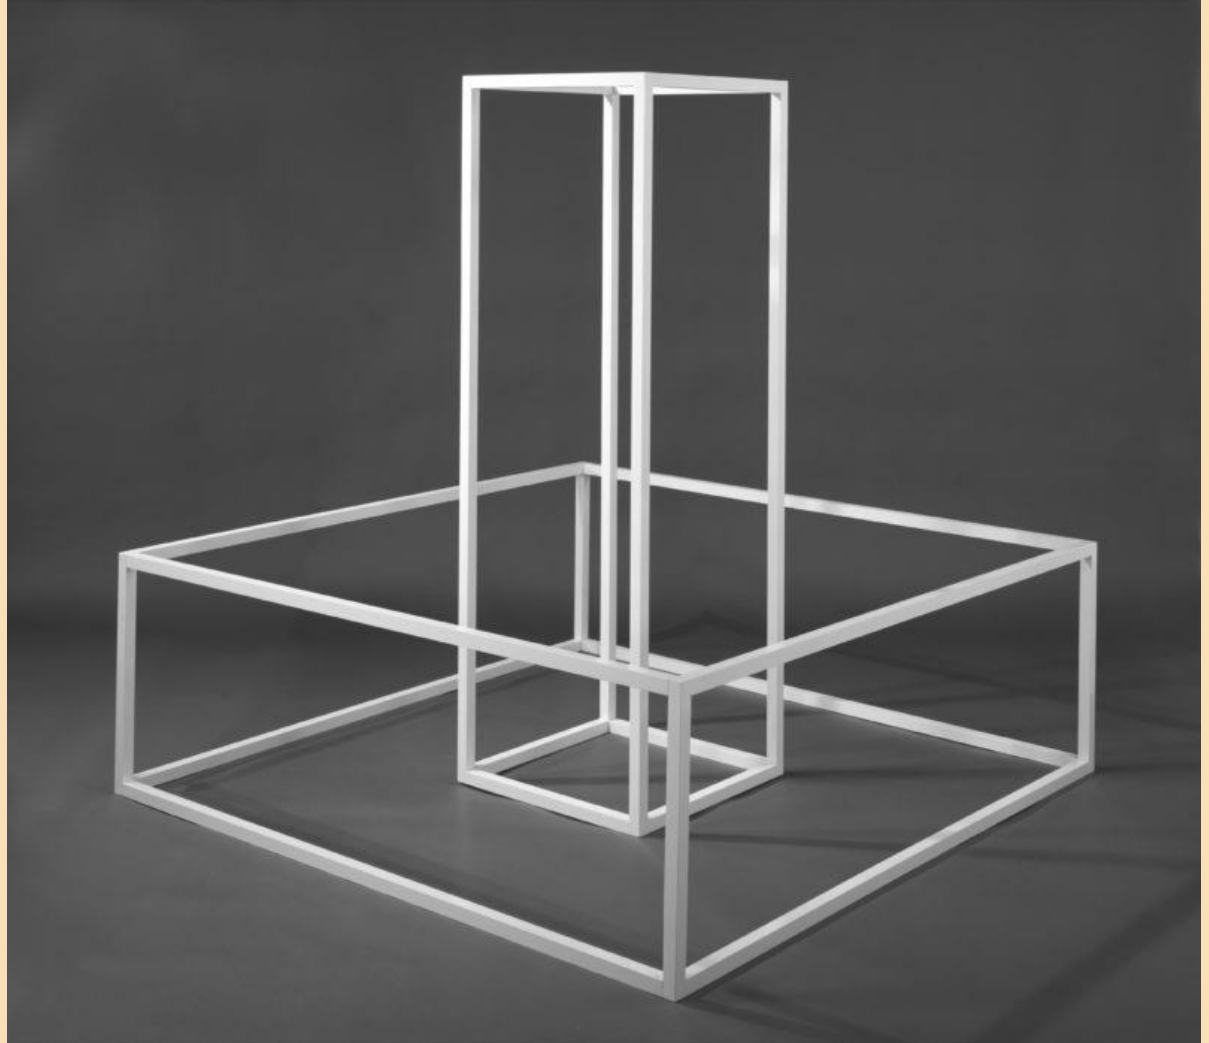

Painting become less intense and gestural toward the early 1960s. Pop art is still happening, too.

Donald Judd

<https://www.guggenheim.org/artwork/1741>

Sol Lewitt

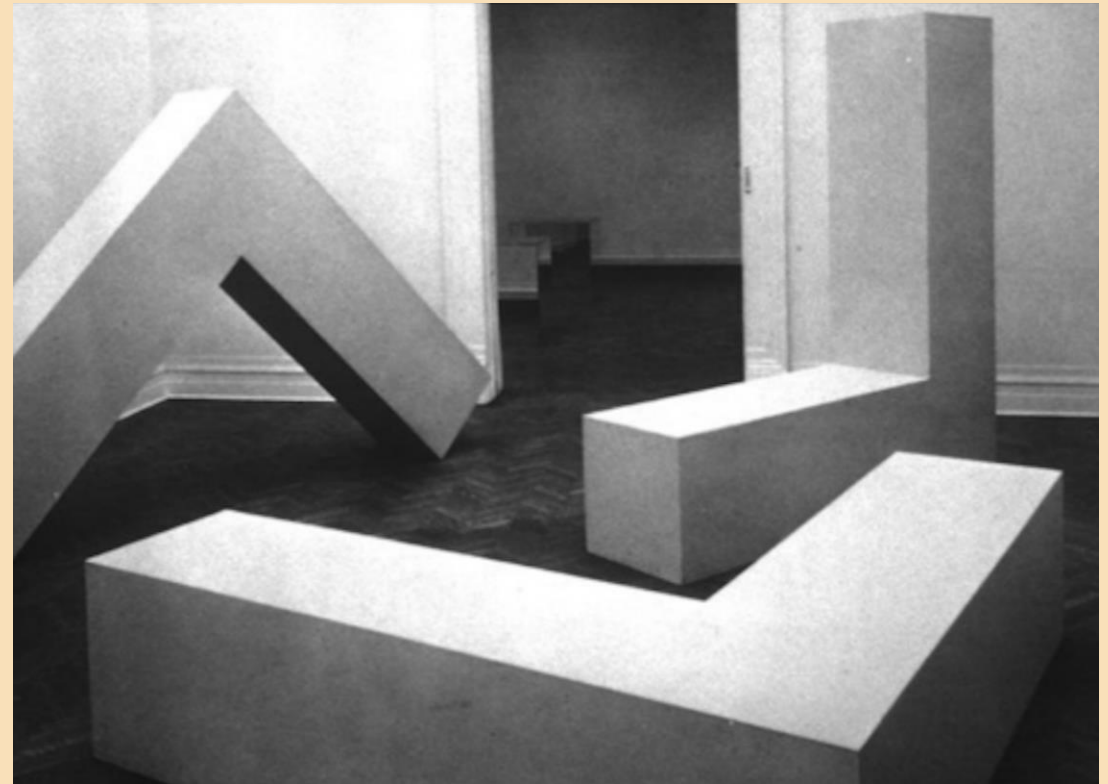

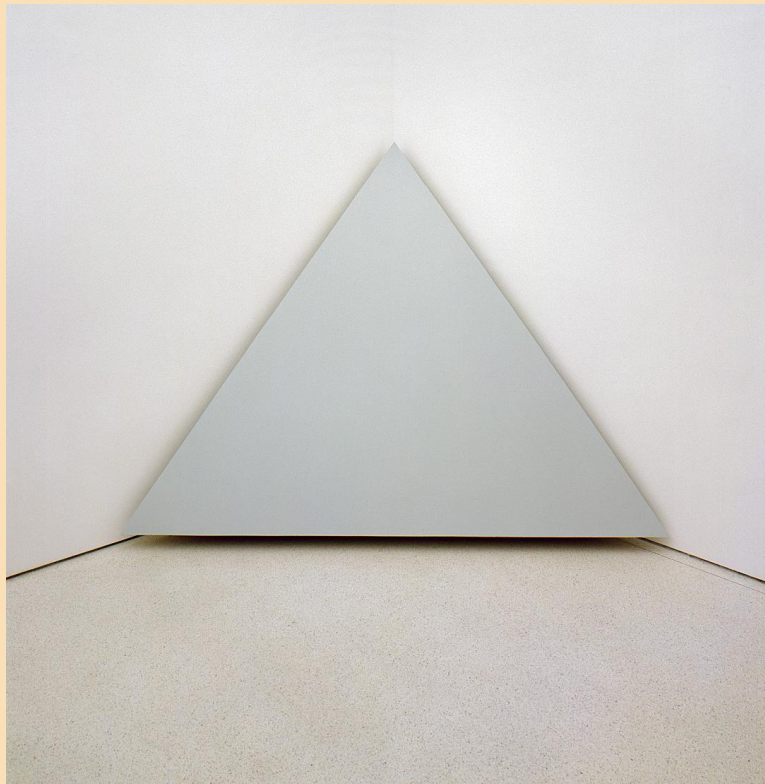

Walter De Maria

Carl Andre

Robert Morris

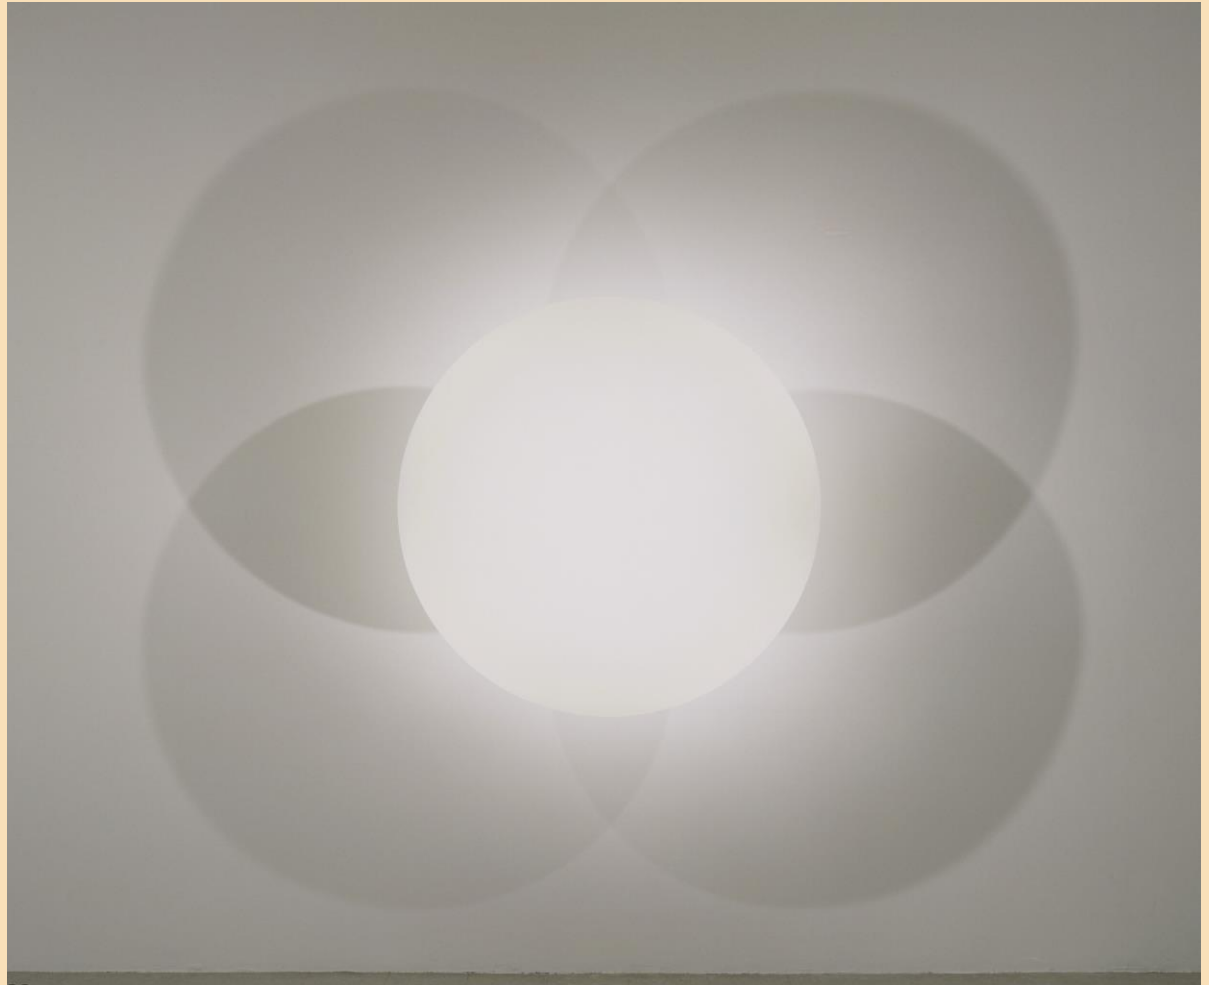

Richard Serra

https://magazine.art21.org/2013/05/02/alch emy-richard-serras-early-work/

Robert Irwin

<https://www.moma.org/collection/works/79227>

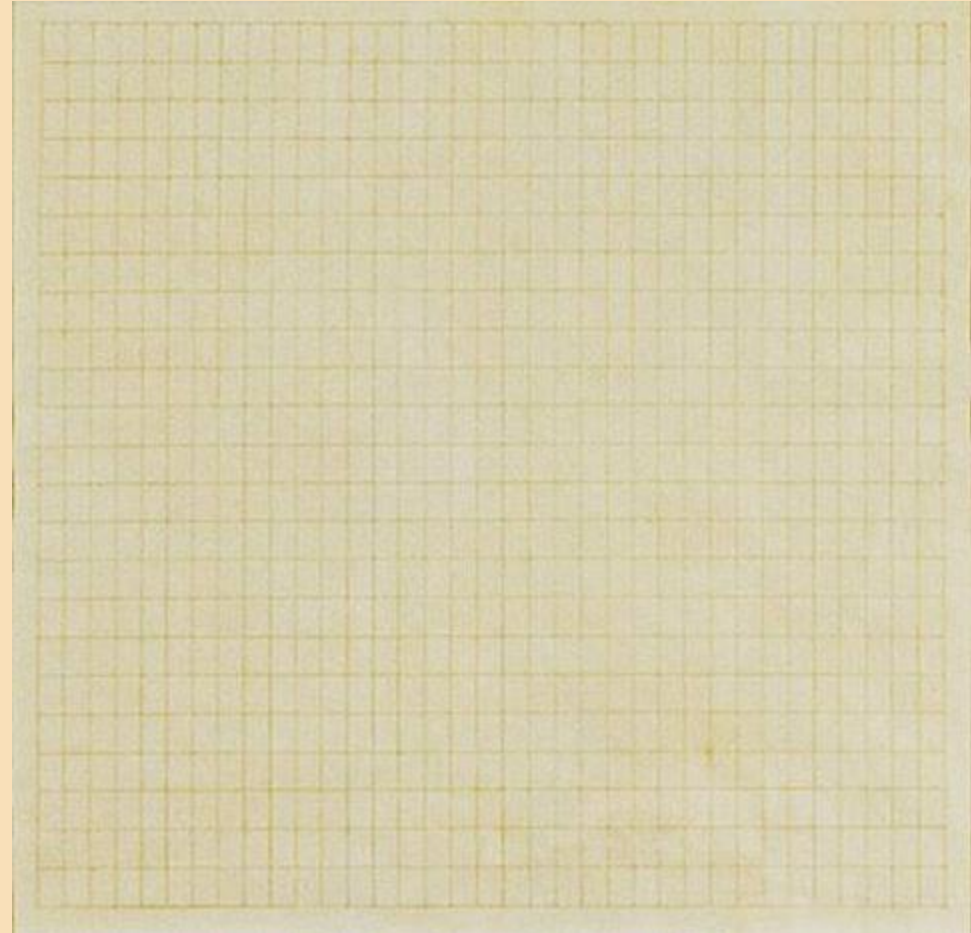

Dan Flavin

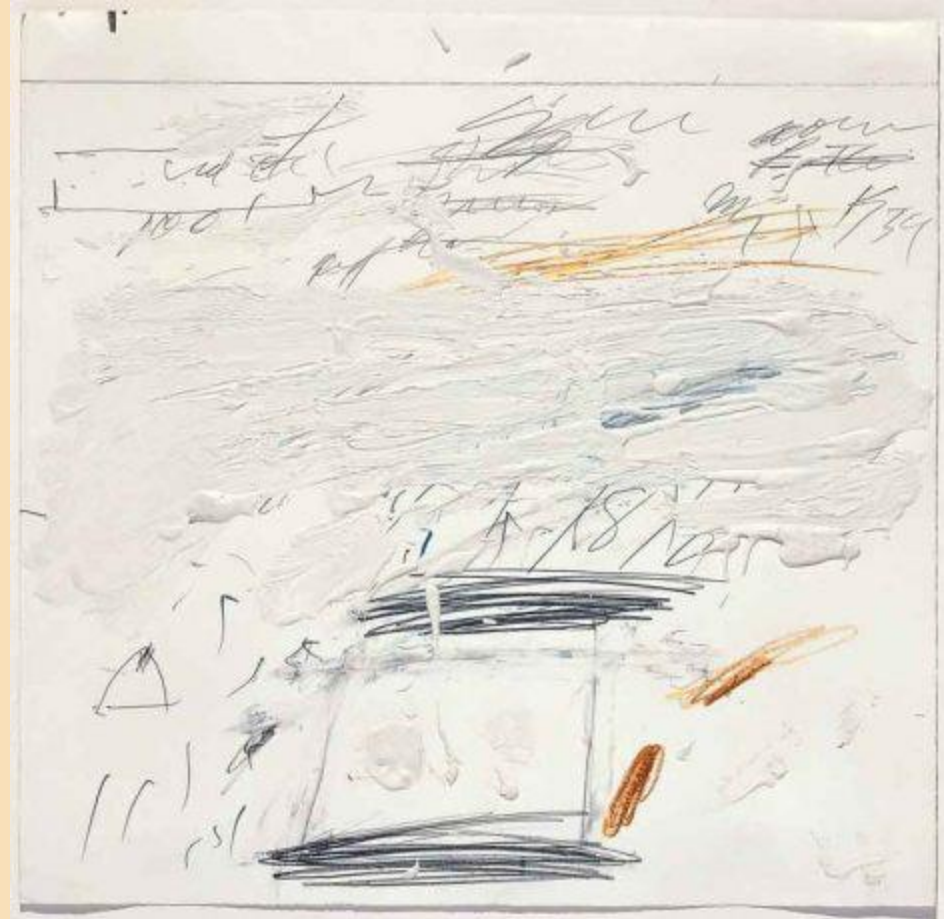

Agnes Martin

<https://www.wikiart.org/en/agnes-martin>

Cy Twombly

<https://cytwombly.org/artist/chronology>

John Chamberlain

Robert Rauschenberg

Claes Oldenburg

